Re: Osen LLC v. United States Central Command, 19 Civ. 6867 (JPC)

Dear Judge Cronan:

Having reviewed plaintiff's memorandum of law in opposition to CENTCOM's motion for summary judgment and in support of plaintiff's cross-motion for summary judgment, I write respectfully to request a three-month stay of briefing on the parties' cross-motions to permit the government to reprocess certain records and for the parties to continue discussions about narrowing the issues in dispute or resolving the litigation. Plaintiffs join in this request which is the parties' first request for a stay of briefing.¹

Since plaintiff filed its motion and opposition papers several weeks ago, the government has reviewed the disputed withholdings, and the parties have had detailed discussions by telephone about the documents at issue. The government has now decided to reprocess certain records for some of the disputed redactions, which will, at a minimum, narrow the open issues for the Court's resolution. Given the volume of documents to be reprocessed, the government estimates that reprocessing will take several months. During this time, the parties plan to continue their discussions about potential additional narrowing of the issues in dispute or consensual resolution of suit entirely.

In light of this agreement, the parties respectfully request as follows: (1) that the operative briefing schedule on the parties' cross-motions for summary judgment, ECF No. 43, be stayed without date; and (2) that the parties file a status report in three months, or October 24, 2022, addressing the progress of CENTCOM's reprocessing and whether additional time for reprocessing or discussions, or further litigation, is needed.

¹ The parties have previously requested three extensions of the briefing schedule, see ECF Nos. 38, 40, 42, which the Court granted, see ECF Nos. 39, 41, 43.
